Brief report /Description on the event

- Sr. No. 1
- IMERT organized FDP on National Board of Accreditation Process for IMERT MBA staff members. IMERT feel proud privileged for gaining Dr Suraj Kamble (Associate Professor, IMDR) and Prof. Gopa Das (Assistant Professor IMDR) as the Resource persons. Dr Shubhangee Ramaswamy (Director, IMERT) welcomed the guest speakers. She briefed about IMERT's Intentions of applying for NBA accreditation.
- The session speakers focused on the National Board of Accreditation (NBA) journey of IMDR. During the session, the speakers focused into the key aspects of NBA accreditation, discussing the criteria and requirements that institutions must meet to obtain accreditation. From curriculum standards to faculty qualifications, facility & infrastructure standards and ethical guidelines, they explained the crucial elements that contribute to quality standards and continuous improvement in our program. They emphasized on curriculum development, mentoring methodologies, faculty development programs, and maintaining high ethical standards provided attendees with actionable guidance for our accreditation journey. They also dove into the accreditation process itself, discussing the necessary documentation and evidence that institutions need to submit to demonstrate compliance with the standards. From successful examples of session plans and policy manuals to students' performances and alumni records, they explored the breadth of documentation required for a successful accreditation application.
- The session was interactive, featuring engaging Q&A and discussions, that allowed participants to seek clarification and gain further insights into the NBA accreditation process. Overall 18 participants (Teaching and Non-Teaching staff members) from IMERT MBA department got benefitted by attending the program. Dr Mangalgouri Patil provided the vote of thanks. She under guidance of Dr Shubhangee Ramaswamy (Director, IMERT) coordinated the FDP. Dr Pranav Kayande assisted in organizing the event.
