Report on 'Warkari Bhakti Yoga' Programme Held in Pune on

International Yoga Day

In celebration of International Yoga Day, Savitribai Phule Pune University, Pune hosted a large-scale spiritual and wellness gathering, Warkari Bhaktiyog 2025, at the Khashaba Jadhav Sports Complex. The event drew enthusiastic participation from students, yoga practitioners, spiritual leaders, and citizens of all age groups.

Maharashtra Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis attended the event as the chief guest, accompanied by Ministers Chandrakant Patil and Madhuri Misal. Their presence highlighted the growing significance of integrating India's spiritual traditions with modern wellness practices.

Speaking at the event, Fadnavis said, "Today, those who have long followed the path of Raj Yoga are now embracing Bhakti Yoga. Yoga not only strengthens the body but also heals the mind. It is a powerful medium of transformation. Through these practices, I envision a society that is both healthy and harmonious."

The event was jointly organized by the Department of Higher and Technical Education, Savitribai Phule Pune University, Pune Municipal Corporation, Shri Sant Dnyaneshwar Maharaj Sansthan (Alandi), and Shri Sant Tukaram Maharaj Sansthan (Dehu). The collaboration aimed to instill a sense of devotion, mindfulness, and holistic wellness—particularly among the younger generation.

Prof. Pranjal Jadhav and Prof. Vivekanand Gaikwad, along with student volunteers, actively participated in the celebration of International Yoga Day with the Warkari community in Karvenagar, Pune.

In celebration of Bhaktiyog Day, faculty members from MM's IMERT demonstrated their spirit of service by distributing 600 soaps to Warkari participants across three Dindi locations in Karvenagar. This meaningful gesture reflected their dedication to supporting the well-being of the Warkari community.
