Report on Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Jayanti Padayatra

On occasion of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Jayanti Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Government of India in association with My Bharat, Govt of Maharashtra, Pune Municipal Corporation organised पदयात्रा (Padayatra). Celebration started at Shaniwaar Wada with cultural event by school students.

Pune Mayor Mrs. Manjusha Nagpure and Deputy Mayor Mr. Parashuram Wadekar paid tribute to Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj by offering a garland at his statue. Arjun Awardee Kakasaheb Pawar and Indian Kho Kho team captain Pratik Waikar were also present. The occasion was graced by the presence of government officials, Principals and faculty members from various undergraduate and postgraduate government colleges, and dedicated teams of NSS, NCC students.

Addressing the gathering, Mayor Manjusha Nagpure urged citizens specially the youths should live by values and principles of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj instead of just showing up for parades and ceremonies. She emphasised that Shiv Jayanti should serve as a meaningful occasion to connect youth generations with value such as courage, unity, leadership and collective responsibility. The march began at the iconic Shaniwarwada and proceeded through key routes before culminating near statute of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj close to SSPM School. The loud drumming, powerful cultural slogans and chants of 'Jai Bhavani, Jai Shivaji', 'Har Har Mahadev' reflected the enthusiasm of the students. Nearly 2000 students and volunteers took part in spirited Padayatra to commemorate the birth anniversary of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj.

Under the guidance of Director Dr. Shubhangee Ramaswamy students of MM's IMERT and Dr. Praful Sarangdhar represented the padayatra.
