Institute Innovation Cell of Marathwada Mitra Mandal's Institute of Management Education Research & Training, Pune organized a session under the Savitribai Phule Pune University (SPPU) Talk Series to promote start-up culture among students. The session was effectively anchored by Rasmin Rasuludeen and Ekata Bombale, who conducted the program in a very professional and engaging manner.

The program featured Mr. Mangesh Birajdar, CEO & Founder, Creamy Nuts India, who shared his inspiring entrepreneurial journey. He explained how he started his venture with determination and gradually built it into a growing enterprise despite facing financial and market challenges. He encouraged students to develop a clear vision, believe in their ideas, and confidently step into the startup ecosystem.

The second guest, Adv. Amitabh Mehata, Director, Spectrum Legal Solutions, highlighted the importance of consistency and discipline in entrepreneurship. He emphasized that success does not come overnight and requires continuous efforts, patience, and commitment. He guided students on maintaining focus, following proper legal procedures, and staying consistent in their work to achieve long-term business sustainability. Both speakers motivated students to adopt an entrepreneurial mindset and pursue innovative career paths.

Under the guidance of Dr. Shubhangee Ramaswamy, Director IMERT SPPU Talk Series was organized by MM's IMERT, The initiative was coordinated by Prof. Vivekanand Gaikwad, IIC Coordinator along with the support of team IMERT.
