Brief Report / Description on the Event-

Marathwada Mitra Mandal's Institute of Management Education, Research & Training (MM's IMERT), Pune, organized a Special Programme on National Librarian's Day on 12 August 2026 to commemorate the Birth Anniversary of Padma Shri Dr. S. R. Ranganathan, the Father of Library Science in India.

The programme aimed to promote reading culture, information literacy, and the effective use of library resources and services. A total of 30 staff members & students participated in the programme. The programme was presided over by Dr. Shubhangee Ramaswamy, Director, MM's IMERT, with Ms. Priyanka Ganage Madam also present on the occasion. Faculty members, staff, and students actively participated in the programme.

The programme commenced with a floral tribute to Dr. S. R. Ranganathan by Dr. Shubhangi Ramaswamy, Director, MM's IMERT, along with the HODs, Library Committee members, IQAC Team, Examination Team, faculty members, teaching and non-teaching staff, and students.

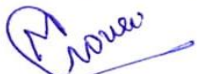

Mr. Sagar Ankushrao Bhoite, Librarian, highlighted Dr. Ranganathan's valuable contributions to Library Science and the relevance of his "Five Laws of Library Science" in the digital era. A New Arrivals Book Exhibition, Library Awareness Programme, and guidance session on "Effective Use of the Library" were also conducted. Participants were introduced to the E-Library, e-books, e-journals, online databases, and digital information resources.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks by the Librarian, expressing sincere gratitude to all dignitaries, faculty members, staff, and students for their valuable presence and participation.

Overall, the programme was informative, meaningful, and successful in promoting reading culture, library awareness, information literacy, and lifelong learning.

"A library is not merely a house of books; it is a centre for the dissemination of knowledge and the intellectual development of society."
