Brief Report / Description on the Event-

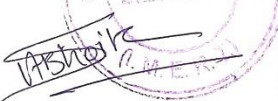

Marathwada Mitra Mandal's Institute of Management Education, Research & Training (MM's IMERT), Pune, organized a special programme on Reading Inspiration Day on 15 October 2026 to commemorate the birth anniversary of Bharat Ratna Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam, former President of India, eminent scientist, and inspirational author.

The main objective of the programme was to promote a reading culture among students, encourage information literacy, enhance the effective use of library resources and services, and foster lifelong learning. A total of 33 staff members and students participated in the programme. The programme was presided over by Dr. Shubhangee Ramaswamy, Director, MM's IMERT. Heads of Departments (HODs), faculty members, non-teaching staff, and students were also present.

The programme commenced with a floral tribute to Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam, offered by Dr. Shubhangee Ramaswamy, Director, MM's IMERT. The occasion was attended by Teaching and Non-Teaching staff, and students. Dr. Sagar Ankushrao Bhoite, Librarian, highlighted the significance of Reading Inspiration Day and emphasized Dr. Kalam's valuable contributions to science, education, and nation-building. He explained the importance of reading in students' academic and personal development and highlighted the vital role of libraries in promoting a reading culture, enhancing information literacy, and encouraging lifelong learning.

On this occasion, a New Arrivals Book Exhibition was organized in the library. The exhibition introduced students and staff to newly acquired books and encouraged them to make greater use of the library's resources. The programme concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by the Librarian, who expressed sincere gratitude to the Director, dignitaries, faculty members, staff, and students for their valuable presence, cooperation, and active participation.

Overall, the programme was informative and meaningful. It highlighted the importance of reading, enhanced awareness of library resources and services, and encouraged students and staff to cultivate a lifelong reading habit.
