Brief Description of the event

Prof. Pranjal Krishna Jadhav attended the National Seminar on “Philosophy of Integral Humanism and Its Contemporary Relevance” held on 9–10th October 2025. The participation provided an opportunity for academic engagement with an important theme in contemporary Indian philosophical discourse. The seminar was organized by the Department of Philosophy, Savitribai Phule Pune University, in collaboration with the National Service Scheme (NSS), Kendriya Hindi Nideshalaya, New Delhi, the Centre for Integral Studies and Research, Pune, and the Indian Council of Philosophical Research, New Delhi. Chief guest for the program was Shri Arif Mohammad Khan, Hon'ble Governor Bihar state, Guest of Honour was Prof Jitendra Kinamr Misra, Director, Kendriya Hindi Nideshalaya, New Delhi and Shri Haribhau Mirasdar, Centre for Integral Studies and Research, Pune. Chief patrons were Prof Dr Suresh Gosavi, Vice Chancellor, SPPU and prof Dr Parag Kalkar, Pro- Vice Chancellor, SPPU.

The seminar aimed to provide an academic platform for examining the philosophical foundations of Integral Humanism and exploring its relevance to contemporary social, political, cultural, and ethical challenges.

The event brought together an academic audience interested in the theoretical foundations and practical implications of Integral Humanism. The participation of scholars and researchers provided an opportunity to engage with the subject from diverse philosophical and contemporary perspectives. Participation in the seminar was valuable from the perspective of academic enrichment and professional development. It also reinforced the significance of attending national seminars and conferences to remain engaged with emerging discussions and perspectives in one's field of study.
