Faculty Development Programme (FDP) on “Entrepreneurship Essentials” organised at Savitribai Phule Pune University, Pune. The programme was conducted in a hybrid mode, with offline sessions held from 17th to 19th August 2026 and online sessions from 20th to 21st August 2026. The offline sessions were conducted at the Auditorium, Department of Geology, Savitribai Phule Pune University. The primary objective of the FDP was to equip faculty members with essential knowledge, skills, and contemporary tools to promote entrepreneurship and innovation among students. The programme focused on strengthening entrepreneurial education through interactive learning methodologies, including educational videos, infographics, game-based exercises, and the use of AI Copilot tools to support teaching and learning. The FDP enhanced faculty understanding of entrepreneurship, innovation, and startup ecosystem development. It focused on practical and experiential approaches to strengthen entrepreneurship education. The programme highlighted the role of faculty in nurturing entrepreneurial skills among students. Interactive offline and online sessions, quizzes, and assessments supported effective learning. Overall, the FDP contributed to strengthening the entrepreneurial and startup ecosystem in SPPU and its affiliated colleges.

Prof. Vivekanand Gaikwad and Prof. Sachin Kshirsagar from Marathwada Mitra Mandal’s Institute of Management Education Research and Training (MM’s IMERT), Pune, attended the FDP. The knowledge and insights gained through the programme are expected to contribute to enhancing teaching practices, promoting innovation and entrepreneurship among students, and strengthening the entrepreneurial learning environment at MM’s IMERT, Pune.
